Re: Acceptance Letter for Paper Presentation in the 8th National and the 1st International Conferences

Dear Professor Stephen Jenkins

Attachment: Program of the 8th National and the 1st International Conferences

Lamphun Buddhist College of Mahachulalongkornrajavidyalaya University is organizing the 8th National and the 1st International Conferences on the theme “Buddhism and New Global Trends: The Footprint of Khruba Sriwichai towards Contemporary Civilization” from 19th to 20th March 2022 at 8:00 AM – 16.30 PM, to serve as a platform for disseminating the academic work of graduates, lecturers, researchers, and general public.

Following the submission of your academic paper entitled “Compassion blesses the compassionate The basis of human flourishing in Buddhist thought and practice” authored by Professor Stephen Jenkins, the organizing committee is pleased to inform you that your paper has been approved by experts to present in the form of poster presentation at the upcoming conferences. Your paper also met the criteria and was revised in accordance with the experts’ suggestions; as a result, your paper will be published in the national and international proceedings.

With this acceptance letter, it is our pleasure to invite you to present your academic paper through Zoom at the 8th National and the 1st International Conferences on the aforementioned date and time. If you have any questions, please contact Asst. Prof. Dr. Phrakhu Kowitarttawatee, International Conference Coordinator at udorn.sang@mcu.ac.th by 15th March 2022.

Yours sincerely in the Dhamma

(Asst. Prof. Dr. Phrakhu Sirisutanuyut)
